Hi John,

The order say parties will ultimate settlement authority must be present. My client is having a representative come to the mediation. I called the clerk and she said as long as one has authority to settle then that is fine. My client is currently in Vietnam. Thank you.

Best,

I write to follow up on my comments at the Status Report about the mediation and the mediation requirements from Magistrate Judge Love to ensure that your client, Berg, will be present at the mediation. Please confirm that your client will be present, in person, at next week's mediation.

John
